

I am writing today to show my support for the adoption of the rule 8.4. As a mother, and an ally of the LGBTQ+ community, I find it troubling that in 2017 my friends and family can be denied legal services
 because of their orientation. All Montanans deserve
 equal access to public services. Please support rule 8.4.
 Thank you.

BEARTOOTH PASS, also known as the Top of the World, straddles the Montana - Wyoming border, between Red Lodge and Cooke City, Montana. Travelers heading to and from Yellowstone National Park's northeast entrance near Silvergate, Montana, will find panoramic vistas at every turn, climb to 10,947 feet and negotiate a dizzying array of switchbacks near Red Lodge, Montana.

THE BEARTOOTH PLATEAU is a high, rugged, and beautiful plateau, dotted with high-altitude lakes. For a few weeks a year, it's sprinkled with delicate, colorful wildflowers. Here, a look over the edge of U.S. 212 reveals Twin Lakes perched on a boulder-strewn bench, high above the Rock Creek Canyon floor, near the Montana-Wyoming border.

Supreme Court Justices of MT, Please support the adoption of rule 8.4. All Montanans deserve equal rights and privileges, no matter their orientation.
 Thank you,

RED LODGE, MONTANA is a stunningly beautiful valley on a summer afternoon. Occupying a fairy-tale valley on the northern edge of the Beartooth Range, Red Lodge offers both visitors and residents a full range of shops and services, plus nearby wilderness recreational opportunity, fine skiing, an annual 4th of July Rodeo and, in August, a "Festival of Nations."

 LGBTQ community, I find
 it troubling that in '17
 my daughter can be denied legal services because of orientation.

THE BEARTOOTH HIGHWAY is a breathtaking stretch of U.S. 212 connecting Red Lodge and Cooke City, Montana--the hard way, by scaling the Beartooth Range. An engineering marvel, the road zigzags from 5,500 feet to 10,940 feet, at every turn unveiling another dizzying vista, weaving in and out of both Wyoming and Montana.

I am writing to show my support for the adoption of rule 8.4. As an ally of the LGBTQ+ community, I find it troubling that anyone would be denied legal services because of sexual orientation. All Montanans deserve equal access to public services. Don't stigmatize!

Yours, Lea Page

RED LODGE, MONTANA caters more to tourists than to coal miners these days from its lovely location just below the Beartooth Mountains on U.S. 212, the road which reaches nearly 11,000' en route to and from the northeastern entrance to Yellowstone National Park. International flavor abounds in Red Lodge, especially during the annual Festival of Nations, in August, and a totem pole greets visitors from the north.

Re: Non discrimination

Discrimination against people should not be protected in our state. Please use your judicial influence and power to make sure that no Montana abortion medicine, access, or care is denied to discriminated against.

I suggest rule 8.4 and that you also make sure that LGBO individuals receive equal access to all legal rights.

Please support Rule 8.4
