TO: Aimee Lamoureux
DATE: March 19, 2020
Re: Notice of Attorney Departure

Dear Aimee:

We are sending you this letter because attorney Megan Timm will be leaving Gravis Law, PLLC ("Gravis Law") effective Friday, March 20, 2020.

Based on the fact that Megan Timm was the attorney primarily responsible for handling your case at Gravis Law, this letter is to notify you of your options moving forward. You have the option to: (1) continue working with Gravis Law and either attorney Michelle R. Finch or Mary Kate Moss in our Kalispell, Montana office can meet with you and take over your case; (2) continue working with Megan Timm with her firm separate from Gravis Law; or, (3) engage a new attorney unrelated to Gravis Law or Megan Timm.

Please indicate your decision below for how you would like to proceed:

- ☐ I elect for Gravis Law to continue representing me and assign a new attorney to my case.
- ☒ I elect for Megan Timm to continue representing me with her firm separate from Gravis Law.
- ☐ I elect to engage a new attorney unrelated to Gravis Law or Megan Timm and will arrange with Gravis Law for my file(s) to be delivered to me.

Aimee Lamoureux (Mar 19, 2020)

Date

Regardless of your election, please sign return this form to me by end of day on Wednesday, March 25, 2020. You may sign the form via Adobe Sign and return the form to me at mfinch@gravislaw.com. If your election is to continue to have Megan Timm at her firm separate from Gravis Law represent you, she will reach out to you with her new contact information upon receipt of your signed election form.
