Attorneys for Appellee Tammy Oskerson

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF MONTANA

Case No. DA 22-0565

DANIEL BRIAN BOUDETTE,

Appellant,

v.

TAMMY MARIE BOUDETTE, n/k/a TAMMY MARIE OSKERSON,

Appellee

APPELLEE OSKERSON'S FIRST MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO RESPOND TO APPELLANT BOUDETTE'S OPENING BRIEF

Appellee Tammy Marie Boudette n/k/a Tammy Marie Oskerson, respectfully moves this court pursuant to Mont. R. App. P. 26(1) for 30 days of additional time to file her response to Appellant's Opening Brief, filed with this Court on December 22, 2022. Absent the requested extension, Appellee's response would be due January 21, 2023. Appellee asserts good cause exists for granting this motion because of the holidays and scheduling conflicts with briefing other cases. Appellee's Counsel Mr. Owens was out state with relatives for Christmas holidays, and then out of the country through January 17, 2023. Appellee's Counsel Mr. Costanza had scheduling conflicts with briefing in a Wyoming matter that took time away from working on this briefing. Due to these factors, Appellee is requesting additional time to prepare and file her response to the Appellant's Opening Brief.

Pursuant to Mont. R. App. P. 26(1), Counsel for Appellee contacted Appellant on January 17, 2023 by email regarding this motion and he does not oppose it. For the convenience of the Court, a proposed order is filed herewith.

Respectfully submitted this 18th day of January, 2023.
