Attorneys for Appellant

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF MONTANA,
Supreme Court Cause No. DA 23-0425

Kim Elizabeth Bodine,

Appellant,

vs.

Marcus Cook,

Appellee.

UNOPPOSED Motion to Supplement Record with Written Transcript -or- for Leave to Re-File Opening Brief with Cites to Audio Transcript

Appellant, Kim Elizabeth Bodine, respectfully moves the Court for leave to supplement the record with a written transcript of the parties' June 15, 2023 hearing in Gallatin County Justice Court or for leave to re-file her Opening Brief with cites to the audio transcript currently in the Court's record.

The Gallatin County Justice Court's ruling following the parties' June 15, 2023 hearing is the underlying ruling which precipitates this appeal. Throughout their briefs, the parties reference testimony and oral rulings from the hearing. In her Opening Brief, Appellant cited to the written transcript and included the cited portions of that written transcript in the appendix to her brief. Appellant now seeks to ensure that the written transcript, prepared in accord with Rule 8(4) of the Montana Rules of Appellate Procedure, is included in the Court's official record for its ease of review.

In the alternative, Appellant respectfully requests that the Court allow her to re-file her Opening Brief, substituting her cites to the written transcript with cites to the audio transcript pursuant to Rule 8(9)(b) of the Montana Rules of Appellate Procedure.

Counsel for Appellee, Marcus Cook, has been contacted, in writing, and does not oppose these requests.

Respectfully filed this 19th day of January, 2024.
