On July 23, 2002, and in response to information provided by the Administrator of the Montana Board of Continuing Legal Education (Administrator), this Court issued an order directing Theresa Gregory to show cause why she should not be suspended from the practice of law in the State of Montana for her failure to comply with the Rules for Mandatory Continuing Legal Education.

We are now advised by the Administrator that Theresa Gregory's name appeared in error on the list of members in noncompliance with MCLE. The Administrator advised the Court that Ms. Gregory did, in fact, comply with the MCLE requirements in a timely manner, but her affidavit was misfiled in the Administrator's office and that Ms. Gregory was not, at any time, in non-compliance with the MCLE. COMES NOW, Nancy G. Schwartz, in response to the Court's ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE, filed July 23, 2002, and hereby represents the following to the Court.

Ms. Schwartz received notification from the Montana State Bar that she was not in compliance with mandatory CLE reporting requirements in that she had not filed an Affidavit of Attendance at approved CLE Activities for the reporting year of April 1, 2002 – March 31, 2002. Ms. Schwartz contacted Ms. Kathleen Powers, MCLE Administrator, and explained to her that as Ms. Schwartz had 30 carry-over credits from the previous year's affidavit, she was unaware that it was necessary to file a new affidavit deducting the 15 credits to be applied to satisfy the current year's requirements. Ms. Powers indicated that Ms. Schwartz needed to file a new affidavit, even when the credits were to be carried over from the previous year, but that based upon the mistake, she would waive the $100 fine. On 7/23/02, Ms. Schwartz completed an affidavit, and submitted it along with a $25 late fee to the Montana State Bar. Ms. Schwartz believes that she is now in compliance with the Montana Continuing Legal Education Requirements and would request the Court to not enter an order suspending her from the practice of law.

Dated this 29 day of July, 2002.

On July 23, 2002, we issued an Order pursuant to Rule 12(D), of the Supreme Court's Rules and Regulations for Mandatory Continuing Legal Education (CLE Rules) requiring Patrick M. Springer to show cause in writing why he should not be suspended from the practice of law in the State of Montana for noncompliance with these Rules.

By letter dated September 13, 2002, Mr. Springer states that his noncompliance with his continuing legal education requirement was occasioned by reason of severe health problems and resulting treatment therefor. Mr. Springer advises that he has had to limit his law practice by reason of his illness and, further, that he was unable to attend those CLE opportunities he usually utilized to fill his continuing legal education requirements.

In his letter, Mr. Springer outlines the steps which he intends to take to make up his deficiency of CLE credits and specifies those CLE presentations that he intends to attend. Finally, Mr. Springer points out that in 33 years of practice he has never failed to comply with the CLE requirements nor will he in the future if he is allowed to continue in the practice of law.

This Court having considered Mr. Springer's letter, good cause shown

IT IS ORDERED that Patrick M. Springer shall not be suspended from the practice

Therefore, pursuant to said Rule 12(D) you, Barbara J. Tucker, are hereby ordered to show cause, in writing, to this Court within sixty days from the date of this order why you should not, by order of this Court, be suspended from the practice of law in the State of Montana due to your noncompliance with Rule 12 of the Montana Supreme Court's Rules and Regulations for Mandatory Continuing Legal Education.

Re: 2000 - 2001 MCLE Requirement

Dear Ed,

On July 25, 2001, the following individuals were issued show cause orders by Montana Supreme Court for failure to comply with the Rules for Mandatory Continuing Legal Education for the 2000-2001 reporting year:

John Abbott Root Cooper -
M.K. Daniels
Melina J. Datsopoulos
Edward J. Lemons - See Daniels, Datsopoulos Order
Gary L. Spaeth - See John Abbott Root Cooper Order

To date these individuals have not complied with MCLE requirements for 2000-2001. Since the next reporting year will end on March 31, 2002, it would be of great help if we could complete our compliance records for last year. In accordance with the Rule 12(D), the Commission on MCLE respectfully requests that the Court issue an order suspending each of these attorneys from the practice of law.

Thank you very much for your help with this matter.

Sincerely,

Kathleen Powers
MCLE Administrator
