BRANDON BAGNELL,
petitioner,

v.

STATE OF MONTANA,
Warden Godfrey,
Respondent.

Petition No: OP 24-0623

RE: DC-13-80 & DC-15-355 & others

Addendum To

"Petition For Writ of Habeas Corpus" dated 15th Day of October, 2024
and served upon that date.

Comes Now Brandon Bagnell, the Petitioner, pro-se Counsel in this Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus. It has recently come to Petitioner's attention 'AFTER' Petitioner's initial filing of this Petition that all Montana State District Court Judges must swear an Oath to uphold the U.S. Constitution when Sworn in as a Judge. If a Judge swears to uphold the U.S. Constitution then the Judge must provide me the Constitutional right to a Grand Jury indictment based on actual verified Sworn testimony of witnesses and presentation of verified actual evidence. Failure to uphold an Oath to the U.S. Constitution by the Judge is a violation of Petitioner's rights and the Judge's Oath of office among other duties which render that Judge's decisions INVALID. This Petitioner's Judges have violated (my) Petitioner's rights.

*Petitioner hereby adds additional question #15 to the Petition filed 10-15-24

15. Does this Court allow a conviction to stand if the Sentencing Judge and Trial Judge has violated the Oath of office to pursue the charges and conviction?

This Petitioner must be released and convictions vacated for all charges - convictions in this State listed on initial Petition this is added to.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED this 18th day of October, 2024,

Brandon Kale Bagnell - Petitioner
