COMES NOW, the Appellant, by and through counsel of record DOGGETT LAW OFFICES, PLLC, and provides notice that Appellee no longer objects to the extension requested by the Appellant after reviewing email correspondence from the court reporter received after the motion for a second or subsequent extension was filed. In that correspondence, attached as Exhibit 1, the court reporter provides a reasonable explanation for not responding to an email from the Appellant, and provides a timeline of 5 weeks to produce the transcript, which comports with an extension request of 60 days previously made by the Appellant.

Good morning Mr. Doggett,

I am very sorry. Somehow, this message ended up in my junk/spam folder, something I do not typically check. I only became aware of it due to your most recent filing as I was not previously included on any notices regarding the Boeshans appeal. I don't know what happened to cause such a lack of notification.

I would estimate the cost of those three days of transcripts to be $2,600. Unfortunately, Delivery would take 4-5 weeks at this point. If my court calendar clears up, I may be able to accomplish delivery sooner, but I can't guarantee that. I will make it my top priority.

Please let me know if you wish to proceed so I can get this started as quickly as possible.

Thank you and, once again, my apologies,

Geoffrey Curtiss,
Official Court Reporter, RPR

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Transcripts in Boeshans, DR 23-797

Good afternoon Mr. Curtiss,

I have just started representing Mr. Boeshans in his appeal to the Montana Supreme Court. It is my understanding that you are the court reporter for Hon. Judge Linneweber. Please let me know how much it would be for you to prepare a transcript for hearing dates of 8/9/2024, 8/2/2024, and 8/1/2024, and how long it would take to prepare those transcripts. Thank you for your time and attention to this matter.
