Donnic Lee STAUDLEY

Petitioner Appellant

v

STATE of MONTANA

Respondent, Appellee

Case No 24-0513

DL No DV-2020-17

NOTICE of objection
Motion for Reconsideration

Staudley files Notice of objection to Supp.
Counts Decision filed Jan 17, 2025
These "Documents" Are "germane" to this Appeal, in fact the whole Reason for this Appeal, We force the district court to, and State to turn over the Documents and evidence it has repeatedly Refuse to turn over So that, I my finally file A Proper Post-conviction Petition,

STAUDLEY Has filed every motion possible with the District Court and Supreme Court to obtain the records Documents and evidence, the State withheld from Staudley Prior to trial Boyle's counts Have Repeatedly Refused to address this issue, Every opportunity has been provided by Staudley for the State of Montana to correct its State created impediment to Staudley's Appeals, and to correct the Violation to Standley's 14th Amendment Constitutional Right to Due Process By Not Disclosing evidence whether or not material to guilt or punishment, clearly A "Bridy" violation under Bridy v. Maryland. As of this very moment Standley has exhausted all his state remedies on this issue, this issue is now ripe for federal 28 USC § 2254 Habeas corpus Review, STANDLEY will still file the Brief on the other issues, of Not Allowing Standley to Amend the Post-conviction to cure the State created impediment of Standley's Access to legal resources and Standley's Blocked Access to Discovery materials and Court Record.

As for the ~~State~~ Second Appeal on Post-conviction it never counted because Standley never had the Access to the legal resources to file the first one it didn't count because the state created impediments to Standley's ability to file it properly. Regardless to how this court feels about it nothing the court or state can say will change the fact that it happened, the only option left for the courts is to either correct the issue or Not, either way I have made my point on that issue and it's been well established on the record. I respectfully urge the court to Reconsider.

to Avoid A MISCARISE OF JUSTICE.
