CHUCK CLINKENBEARD AND
TROUT CREEK TRUSS, INC.,

Third-Party Defendants and Appellees.

Christine Seibert petitions for rehearing of this Court's December 23, 2025 Order dismissing her appeal without prejudice as premature. Christine asserts that the District Court's order declaring her a vexatious litigant was entered without adequate notice and opportunity to be heard and has caused "profound prejudice" to her claims. She asks the Court to rid her of an undeserved vexatious litigant label.

ORDER

This Court's rules limit a petition for rehearing to the following grounds:

- (i) That [the Court] overlooked some fact material to the decision;
- (ii) That it overlooked some question presented by counsel that would have proven decisive to the case; or
- (iii) That its decision conflicts with a statute or controlling decision not addressed by the supreme court.

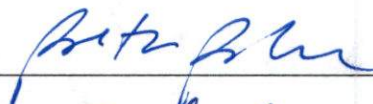

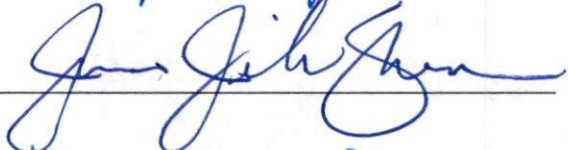

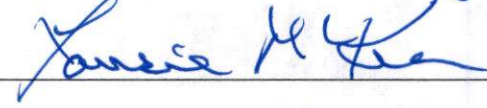

M. R. App. P. 20(1)(a)(i) and (iii). None of those factors is met here.

We explained in our December order that Christine will have the opportunity to appeal the vexatious litigant ruling, but only after a final judgment in the case. At that time, Plaintiffs may bring that issue and any other challenges in one appeal. Until then, an appeal is premature. M. R. App. P. 4(1)(a), 6(1).

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that Petition for Rehearing is DENIED.

The Clerk is directed to notify all parties and counsel of record of the entry of this Order.

Dated this 2nd day of February, 2026.
